

Dessiné par le maître-architecte écossais Tom Simpson, Chantilly, dès son inauguration en 1909, s'impose comme la référence du golf Français. Depuis un siècle, Chantilly maintient cette tradition de noblesse et d'authenticité. Il est considéré par les golfeurs du Royaume Unis comme le 'Saint Andrews continental'. Le club et ses parcours sont devenus l'un des monuments du golf international. Plusieurs Championnats d'Europe et 10 Open de France ont eu lieu dans ce golf régulièrement classé parmi les 5 meilleurs d'Europe.

Founded in 1909, designed by The master-architect Tom Simpson, Chantilly is an essential part of the history of Golf in France. For more than a century, Chantilly has maintained an unmatched tradition of quality and authentic sport in a natural setting. The Club House and the two 18 holes courses have become one of the monuments of international Golf. Several European Championships and 10 French Opens have taken place at Chantilly which is regularly listed among the 5 best courses in Europe.
